May 17 2017 Strong odor prompts Labor Department visit to Westchester Board of Elections

CSEA 9200 contacted the NYS Labor Dept's PESH (Public Employee Safety and Health) unit to conduct a safety inspection due to worker complaints regarding ill effects from fumes and odors. The inspection was done on May 16, 2017 with Senior Industrial Hygienist Sushil Mahalwal of PESH. We will continue to advocate for the health of our members.

May 19 2017 \$14M budget deficit projected for Westchester by the Astorino administration through spokesman McCormack. Each year the administration talks deficits, each year the books close with a surplus. Westchester has 1,000 less employees on the payroll since 2010. Why is that huge salary savings not being properly used? Why then are we hearing this each year?

Annual Playland Family Day

Reminder: Don't wait until the last week to visit and buy tickets for the annual Playland Family Day event from CSEA 9200. Avoid the last minute crowd in the union office; visit the office NOW until 5:00 PM each day. There will be last day lines so act early to avoid all that.

Vote

Elections Reminder: all CSEA Union Members will receive two (2) ballots to your homes.

Please take the time to vote in both elections:

- 1 for the CSEA Local 860 election
- 1 for the CSEA Unit 9200 election

The Local 860 ballot is Purple color with a White return envelope.

The Unit 9200 ballot is Peach color with a Pink return envelope.

Both are sent back to the American Arbitration Association.

Please allow 3-5 business days to receive your ballots at home (to May 24).
