WHAT SHOULD GO IN AN EMERGENCY “GO BAG?”

A Go Bag should be a sturdy and easy-to-carry backpack or suitcase on wheels, containing things you would want to have with you if you have to leave in a hurry.

- Bottled water and nonperishable food, such as canned foods and granola bars
- Personal hygiene items (toothbrush, toothpaste, deodorant, wet wipes, etc.)
- Flashlight, hand-crank or battery-operated AM/FM radio, and extra batteries
- Chargers for any cell phones, laptops or other portable electronic devices
- First aid kit
- Dust mask to reduce inhalation of dust, smoke and other debris;
- Work gloves
- A change of clothing (long sleeve shirt/pants, rain gear, sturdy footwear, etc.)
- Copies of important documents (insurance/medical cards, contact lists, identification, marriage and birth certificates, etc.) in a portable, waterproof container or plastic bag
- Back-up medical/assistive equipment and supplies
- A list of the medications you take, why you take them, and the dosages
- Cash, in small bills
- Supplies for your service animal or pet
